2100 Hamilton Tops Off On The Parkway

Cecil Baker + Partners is delighted to announce that our latest luxury condominium project, 2100 Hamilton, was recently “topped off.”

This project represents a new vision for the luxury condominium market in Philadelphia and sets a stunning example for the potential along the Benjamin Franklin Parkway.

In his remarks, Cecil Baker acknowledged developer Tom Bock's pioneering approach to a project no one else has attempted, referring to 2100 Hamilton as a “flagship of transformation” for both the Parkway and Philadelphia.
